The Roman Empire was one of the most important economic, political and cultural forces in the history of western civilization. Rome is known as the "Eternal City" for its timeless character transcending all historical periods dating back to the city's founding, possibly as far back as 753 BC. Larger-than-life landmarks from pre-Christian times stand side-by-side with more recent edifices that are "only" a few centuries old and modern 20th-century buildings alike. In short, Rome is one of the most compelling destinations anywhere in the world for the traveler looking for an unparalleled historical and culturally-enriching experience.

Brief overview of the city on your way to the hotel. Stop for breakfast en-route.

Arrive at your hotel and check in.

Afternoon PRACTICE SESSION at an astroturf field to warm-up for the next few days.

Evening Dinner at Hotel (included in tour program)

Day 3 ROME

Morning Breakfast at Hotel.

Morning Ancient Rome Half-Day Tour (entrance tickets included)

Coliseum

Roman Forum

Palatine Stadium

The juxtaposition between Rome's ancient landmarks and monuments beside its modern buildings and other structures makes for a fascinating contrast between old and new.

Visit the Coliseum, one of the world's most iconic and recognizable ancient buildings. Walk among the remains of this amphitheatre which was originally completed in 80 AD as a site for fights between gladiators and other public events.

Continue on to Palatine Hill, the most famous of Rome's "Seven Hills" and site of the earliest Roman settlements. From here you can take in great views of the Roman Forum, a plaza that was the center of Roman public life for centuries, and Nero's Circus Maximus, where a Roman chariot racing stadium once stood. The only remains today are a small amount of the original structure and the former race track covered with grass.

The last stop is a walk along the Via Sacra or "Sacred Way" which was the main street of ancient Rome and led to the Forum. It ends at the temple which houses the altar where Julius Caesar was cremated.

Coliseum, Roman Forum, and Palatine Hill tickets are all included.

Afternoon Free time for lunch, relax and to explore the city.

Evening Dinner at Hotel (included in tour program)

Evening MATCH # 1 vs. ITALIAN FIELD HOCKEY TEAM
