Santiago, the capital of Chile, is a large, modern city with some 5 million inhabitants. Founded in 1541, at the southern end of the Spanish colonial empire on the Pacific Ocean, the city grew in importance after what is modern-day Chile declared independence from Spain in 1810.

Check into your Three-Star Hotel.

Afternoon City Sightseeing Tour

Your tour giving you an overview of Santiago starts at the Club Hípico racing track in the traditional West Side residential part of town, featuring the French Art Nouveau / Beaux Arts style of architecture popular in the early 20th century. Proceed to the Cousino Palace, an older mansion that has been refurbished for use as a government VIP residence.

Reaching Alameda Avenue in the heart of Santiago, pass by La Moneda Presidential Palace and numerous statues of independence heroes, into the business and government center of the city. Stop at the Pre-Columbian Art Museum, one of the most complete collections of ceramics, ancient textiles, and other relics of the local indigenous culture.

Arrive at the Plaza de Armas main square where the Metropolitan Cathedral and National Museum are located before proceeding to the San Francisco Church and the National Library, eventually arriving at the Santa Lucia Hill where Santiago was founded in 1541.

Crossing the Mapocho River, ascend the San Cristóbal Hill on the north side of the city for a beautiful panoramic view of the capital below with the Andes in the background. Descending the hill, drive back along the Mapocho River, nearing the foothills of the Andes, and enter the modern, prosperous neighborhoods of Vitacura, Las Condes, and Santa María de Manquehue, with nice homes, manicured gardens, and modern shopping malls.
