Day 4

DUBLIN

(B,D)

Kilmainham Jail (admission included)

This grey forbidding structure is one of Ireland's most notorious landmarks. Many Irish rebelling against British colonial rule in the early 20th-century were imprisoned and even executed here, especially after the famous 1916 Easter Rising. The prison closed in 1924.

Trinity College (admission included)

Visit the sprawling campus of Ireland's most prestigious university, dating back to 1592. Top attraction is the Book of Kells, a mammoth and lavishly illustrated manuscript of the four Gospels of the New Testament, which attracts over a half million visitors per year.

Overnight: Dublin

Day 5

DUBLIN

(B,D)

Guinness Storehouse (optional for a fee)

Visit the brewery of the legendary "black" beer. Go up the seven-story storehouse tower shaped like a pint of Guinness to the Gravity Bar. Take in the view of the sprawling 65-acre St. James's Gate Brewery and top off your visit with a pint of the famous beer ! (must be legal drinking age)

Dublin Free Time

- Grafton Street - Visit this pedestrian promenade that is Dublin's most popular shopping street.
- Bike Ride - Your guide will take you through the city on an easy 2-hour ride for an overview of Dublin including its history and many of its most significant sites. (optional for a fee)
- Kayak Ride - View Dublin from the perspective of the River Liffey as you glide effortlessly on its waters under multiple bridges in the heart of the city. (optional for a fee)
- EPIC - The Irish Emigration Museum - Experience the drama of the Irish emigration which saw 10 million people leave the island in search of a better life. (optional for a fee)
