Day 3

DUBLIN

(B,D)

Kilmainham Jail (admission included)

This grey forbidding structure is one of Ireland's most notorious landmarks. Many Irish rebelling against British colonial rule in the early 20th-century were imprisoned and even executed here, especially after the famous 1916 Easter Rising. The prison closed in 1924.

Trinity College (admission included)

Visit the sprawling campus of Ireland's most prestigious university, dating back to 1592. Top attraction is the Book of Kells, a mammoth and lavishly illustrated manuscript of the four Gospels of the New Testament, which attracts over a half million visitors per year.

MATCH # 1 vs. an IRISH TEAM

Day 5

DUBLIN – WATERFORD – CORK

(B,D)

Check out of hotel.

Transfer by private motorcoach to Cork, stopping in Waterford.

Waterford Crystal Visitor Centre (optional: approx. US$ 16)

Fascinating tour of the glass-making factory where the famous Irish crystal is made. View the Mould Room, where the moulds that shape the molten glass are made, the Blowing Department where the glass first starts to take shape, and the Cutting Department where precise designs are cut into the glass. Visit the factory store where you will find the world's largest collection of Waterford crystal on sale tax-free for shipping back home.

Viking Triangle Museums (admission included)

- Medieval Museum - Guides dressed in medieval-style garb will describe the displays depicting medieval Waterford, including treasures from the 14th and 15th centuries.
- Reginald's Tower - A 12th-century fortification with artifacts chronicling the city's Viking period including a Viking boat replica.
- Bishop's Palace - A beautifully-preserved limestone building dating back to Georgian times with displays of 18th-century glass, silver and paintings, including the oldest piece of Waterford glass.

Continue on to Cork.

Check in to your Three-Star Hotel.
